- (ii) the profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans prepared by the Board of Directors;
- (iii) the appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and their remuneration and payment method thereof;

- (iv) matters other than those required to be adopted by special resolution pursuant to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association.

Article 77 The following matters shall be adopted by special resolution of the general meeting:

- (ii) division, split, merger, dissolution, change in corporate form and liquidation of the Company;
- (iii) amendments to the Articles of Association;

Article 78 Shareholders shall exercise their voting rights in line with the amount of the shares with voting rights they represent, and each share shall carry one vote, unless the individual shareholders are required to abstain from voting on individual matters as required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

On a poll taken at a meeting, shareholders (including proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all of their votes in favor of, or against.

If any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular matter or restricted to voting only for or against any particular matter as required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the shareholder shall abstain from voting, and the votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholders in contravention of such requirements or restrictions shall not be counted.

When material issues affecting the interests of minority shareholders are considered at a general meeting, the votes of minority shareholders shall be counted separately. The separate votes counting results shall be disclosed publicly in a timely manner.

The shares held by the Company do not carry any voting rights, and shall not be counted towards the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders attending a general meeting.

If a shareholder purchases shares with voting rights of the Company in violation of the provisions of Article 63(1) and (2) of the Securities Law, the voting rights of such shares in excess of the prescribed proportion shall not be exercised and such shares shall not be counted towards the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at the general meeting for thirty-six months after the purchase.

Article 79 When the general meeting considers matters relating to related party (connected) transactions, the related (connected) shareholders shall not participate in voting by ballot and the number of shares with voting rights represented by them shall not be counted towards the total number of valid votes. The resolutions of the general meeting shall fully disclose the votes by non-related (non-connected) shareholders (subject to the request of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange).

Before the general meeting considers matters relating to related party (connected) transactions, the Company shall determine the scope of related (connected) shareholders in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed. Related (connected) shareholders or their proxies may attend the general meeting, and may clearly state their views to the other shareholders in accordance with the procedures of the meeting, but they shall abstain from voting by ballot.

Where shareholders at the general meeting vote on matters relating to related party (connected) transactions, related (connected) shareholders shall abstain from voting. If related (connected) shareholders fail to abstain from voting, other shareholders attending the meeting shall have the right to request them to abstain from voting. After related (connected) shareholders have abstained from voting, other shareholders shall vote according to their voting rights and pass the corresponding resolutions in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association. The chairman of the general meeting shall inform the related (connected) shareholders of the voting avoidance and voting procedures, which shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

When the general meeting makes a resolution on related party (connected) transactions, it shall be passed by more than half or two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by the non-related (non-connected) shareholders present at the general meeting, depending on the difference between an ordinary resolution and a special resolution. Two representatives of non-related (non-connected) shareholders shall participate in the counting and scrutinizing of votes on related party (connected) transactions.

In order to be valid, the resolutions made at the general meeting on matters relating to connected transactions shall be passed by more than half of the votes cast by the non-connected shareholders attending the general meeting. However, in order to be valid, in the event of such connected transaction involving matters that need to be passed by special resolution as stipulated in the Articles of Association, the resolutions of the general meeting must be passed by two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by the non-connected shareholders attending the general meeting. Where the connected shareholders fail to disclose the connected relationship or abstain from voting in respect of the connected matters in accordance with the aforesaid procedures, all resolutions in respect of such connected matters shall be invalid and shall be voted again. Where an announcement is involved, the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting shall fully disclose the voting of the non-connected shareholders.

Article 80 Unless in exceptional circumstances such as the Company is in a crisis, the Company will not enter into contracts with persons other than directors, managers and other senior management personnel to place the management of all or significant business of the Company under the responsibility of such persons unless approved by a special resolution at a general meeting.

Article 81 The list of the candidates for directors shall be put forward for voting at the general meeting by way of a proposal.

The manner and procedure for the nomination of directors shall be:

- (i) Candidates for non-employee representative directors shall be nominated in the following ways:
 - 1. nominated by the Board of Directors of the Company;
 - 2. nominated by shareholders who individually or collectively hold 1% or more of the Company's shares carrying voting rights, but the number of candidates nominated shall not exceed the number of directors to be elected or changed.
- (ii) The nominator shall submit the resume and basic information of the candidate to the secretary to the Board of Directors of the Company in writing 10 days before the convening of the general meeting. The candidate for directors shall make a written commitment (by any means of notice) prior to convening the general meeting, agreeing to accept the nomination, undertaking that the information disclosed is true and complete, and guaranteeing that he/she will earnestly perform his/her duties as a director after being elected. In case of nomination of directors, the Board of Directors shall be responsible for preparing the proposal and submitting it to the general meeting.

Article 82 The general meeting shall vote on all proposals separately. Where there are different proposals on the same matter, the voting shall be conducted in chronological order of submission of the proposals. Unless the general meeting is suspended or fails to make a resolution due to force majeure or other special reasons, the general meeting shall neither shelve nor refuse to vote on the proposal.

Article 83 The proposal will not be amended when it is considered at the general meeting, otherwise the change in question shall be considered as a new proposal and cannot be voted on at the general meeting for the time being.

Article 84 Only one of the on-site, Internet or other voting methods can be selected for the same voting right. In the event of duplicate votes on the same voting right, the result of the first vote shall prevail.

Article 85 The general meeting shall adopt a registered voting system.

Article 86 Before voting on a proposal at a general meeting, two representatives of shareholders shall be selected to take part in the counting and scrutinizing of the votes. If a shareholder is interested in the matter under consideration, the relevant shareholder and his/her proxy shall not participate in the counting and scrutinizing of the votes.

When a proposal is voted on at a general meeting, the lawyer (if required) and the shareholders' representative shall be responsible for counting and scrutinizing the votes, and the results of the vote shall be announced on site, and the results of the vote on the resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. In the event that a shareholder is interested in the resolution to be considered, the relevant shareholder and his/her proxy shall not participate in counting and scrutinizing of the votes.

An on-site general meeting shall not be concluded earlier than the one held via the Internet or through other means. The chairman of the general meeting shall announce the voting details and poll results on each proposal, and whether a proposed resolution has been passed based on such results.

Before the formal announcement of voting results, the Company, vote counter, vote scrutineer, substantial shareholders and other related parties involved shall be under a confidentiality obligation for the details of the voting.

Article 87 Shareholders present at a general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on a proposal submitted for voting: for, against or abstention, save for the circumstance under which the securities registration and clearing institution, acting as the nominal holder of shares under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect, makes a declaration according to the intentions of the de facto holders (if applicable).

Blank, wrong, illegible or uncast votes shall be deemed as the voters' waiver of their voting rights, and the voting results representing the shares held by such voters shall be counted as "abstentions".

Where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or against any particular resolution as required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in violation of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 88 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of any resolution put to vote, he/she may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any attending shareholder or proxy thereof who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result, and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 89 The resolution of the general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed. The announcement shall specify the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting, the total number of shares carrying voting rights held by them and their proportion in the total number of shares carrying voting rights of the Company, the voting means, the voting result of each proposal and the details of each resolution passed.

Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolutions of the preceding general meeting have been changed at the current general meeting, special mention shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 90 Where proposals on the election of directors are passed at the general meeting, the newly appointed directors shall take office at the time specified in the resolutions of the general meeting. In respect of the election of the Board of Directors, the term of office of the directors newly elected shall be the expiration date of the term of office of the previous directors.

Article 91 If a proposal for cash dividends, bonus shares, or conversion of capital reserve into share capital is approved at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plan therefor within two months after the conclusion of the meeting. If the requirements of laws, regulations, or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed prevent such implementation within two months, the implementation timeline may be adjusted in accordance with such requirements and actual circumstances.
